Commentary

Net performance of OCP Credit Strategy (the Fund) was -1.98% and -1.50% for June and year-to-date, respectively. For the month of June, the CS Leveraged Loan, CS High Yield indexes and S&P 500 returned (0.31%), (1.38%) and (1.94%), respectively.

In June, there were no material contributors to positive performance; however, Glitnir was the one of the largest. A notable detractor from performance was OSX.

On June 8, Iceland announced its plan to exit capital controls and following that news, Glitnir's largest creditors agreed to a plan of reorganization. According to the terms of the plan, the Fund along with other creditors would receive a substantial amount of the estimated recovery value in the next six to nine months. Although the economic impact of the deal was in line with expectations, the announcement laid out a process and timing for making distributions. We anticipate creditors will vote in favor of the plan this fall.

The fund holds the term loan of OSX-2 Leasing B.V., a company whose main asset is an offshore vessel for production and storage of oil and gas. The vessel is not under charter and the lenders have recently taken control of the vessel with an intent to remarket. The value of the collateral has been adversely affected by the decline in oil prices and uncertain charter market. We continue to believe there is upside to the current valuation.

You will usually pay brokerage fees to your dealer if you purchase or sell units of the investment fund on the Toronto Stock Exchange ("TSX"). If the units are purchased or sold on the TSX, investors may pay more than the current net asset value when buying units of the investment fund and may receive less than the current net asset value when selling them. There are ongoing fees and expenses associated with owning units of an investment fund. An investment fund must prepare disclosure documents that contain key information about the fund. You can find more detailed information about the fund in these documents. The indicated rates of return are the historical annual compounded total returns including changes in unit value and reinvestment of all distributions and do not take into account certain fees (such as redemption fees or optional charges) or income taxes payable by any unitholder that would have reduced returns. Investment funds are not guaranteed, their values change frequently and past performance may not be repeated.

Performance figures for the Fund are based on Canadian generally accepted accounting principles and were based on audited financial statements through December 31, 2014 and unaudited monthly estimates thereafter. Performance figures for the Fund include distributions paid during the relevant period and are calculated net of expenses and fees. Returns for the Fund may diverge from the returns for the Portfolio for several reasons including the incurrence of expenses and payment of distributions by the Fund.
